FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

GREETINGS THIS HOLIDAY SEASON!! WE HOPE YOU ALL HAVE A FANTASTIC THANKSGIVING AND HOLIDAY WITH YOUR LOVED ONES. As genealogists we don't want to forget the living while searching for the dead, do we? I have to tell myself that often since I have become the Editor of this newsletter and have found myself busy trying to get the Surname Index for 1990 done by next meeting. This past month has been anything but cooperative with me in attempting to do my job right. Maybe elections can be moved up to an earlier date so that the editor will not have very important things like the Yearbook and Surname Index and Newsletter all demanding time during the Holiday season! Members, please consider changing the election date so that the Editor will not be so cramped for time to do all that is expected of him/her!

"To Share or not to share, that is the question." Since sharing is a very important part of this season, let's talk about sharing our findings with others who write us. Recently I had a letter from a relative who wanted "any information" I have on a certain family. It so happens I have enough to write a full book on that one family. This person is in the process of writing a book on this particular family. I have spent 20 to 25 years gathering information on all my lines and happen to have volumes on this one family line. The request was so general, that I had to decide what would be appropriate for me to send. Yes, I did share with her the information linking me to this family and also information regarding my personal descendants who would also be related to this family, but I could not conscientiously send "all" my information to her to publish in her book. I also have plans to publish a book/books about my research and therefore believe that I fulfilled my obligation to "share" with this person.

We hope that all of our members will be willing to share specific information with others who are researching the same surnames as you. Exchanging information can many times give you the breakthrough you need, but do not expect others to give you all the information which they have accumulated over many years of research. Be willing to pay a reasonable fee for information as it really is expensive to do basic research in genealogy--especially nowadays. Be specific in your requests and offer some amount of remuneration for providing that information as the researcher, although a distant relative, may have spent hundreds of dollars in obtaining that information.

QUERIES

TOMBLING/TEMBLING (sic): Mark G. Mueller, 2820 So. Williams St., Denver, CO 80210-6335 writes the following letter--"I located my great-grandfather's grave in a book about Warren County. He's at the Carlisle Cemetery in Allen Township. I was hoping the cemetery records are as complete as those here, even that far back. We're seeking possible dates of birth and death, at least his burial date. Could you give us the address of the Carlisle Cemetery's Administration Office? I assume you don't have such records. ¶Also, we hope that your newspapers are complete too. Since 1890 isn't that far back even for papers in Colorado, with Iowa being well established while our state was still only a territory. We'd like to locate an obituary. ¶The book had his tombstone reading: J. M. TOMBLING 1833-1890. It also said the marker had Civil War Veteran on it. That section of the book had it under: J. M. TEMBLING (sic). ¶We'd appreciate any information you could render concerning the cemetery's records and an obituary. Please use the self-addressed stamped envelope enclosed. Mark G. Mueller

Mabel Daniels of RR 1, Beacon, Iowa has been the Regional Representative for our area with the IGS. She writes thanking us for our cooperation and patience and hopes we will continue the support to her successor, Jane Jass of Albia.
